

Job Description

Music Director (average 6-10 hours/week)

Aragon United Methodist Church, located in Aragon, GA (2.5 miles north of Rockmart), celebrates one blended contemporary/traditional service of worship each Sunday. It is our aim that our worship of God be passionate, energetic, creative, and spirit-filled, and we envision music as a critical and central component of our worship. This position is supervised by the Pastor, in consultation with the Staff Parish Relations Committee, as provided for by the United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Pre-requisites:

- Committed to the Christian faith, United Methodist background preferred
- Familiarity and comfort with both contemporary and traditional worship music
- Willingness to be a part of a team approach to planning and conducting worship
- Availability from 9-12:30 each Sunday, and at least one weeknight for music rehearsal (currently Tues.)

Job Description:

- Be a spiritual leader of the congregation, modeling prayer, patience, hospitality, and other Christian attitudes at all times, including rehearsals and worship services
- In consultation with Pastor and Worship Committee, select hymns, songs, and special music appropriate to the season and biblical text for each Sunday
- Conduct regular choir practices, providing members of the choir opportunities to grow in their musical practice, their faith, and as a small group.
- Develop a Contemporary Music Team to enhance our blended worship service.
- Participate fully in Worship Committee and Council on Ministry meetings (once a month).
- In consultation with pastor and other congregational leaders, participate in visioning process for growth and development of music program

For more information, or to apply, please contact John Shelkop, Staff Parish Relations Committee at jds2567@gmail.com or Andy Woodworth, Pastor, at andy.woodworth@gmail.com. Additional information about Aragon United Methodist Church is available at www.aragonumc.org.